Retrocession of the Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore.

I am directed to refer to endorsement from this Residency No.Ret.F.30/86 dated the 21st July 1947 forwarding a copy of the political Department notification on the above subject.

2. The Political Department write that the Education Department have been asked to take up all future questions regarding the management of the Indian Institute of Science either direct with the Government of Mysore or through the States Department as the latter may prefer, and not to bring the Hon'ble the Resident into the picture any longer. The files on this subject are accordingly being transferred to the States Department, and in the circumstances, I am to say that the Political Department, and the Resident will no longer handle this matter.

3. The Education Department have also been asked to relieve the Hon'ble the Resident of his position as the Chairman of the Council of the Institute.

4. The Director, Indian Institute of Science has also been addressed on the above lines.
